20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The diversified council meets quarterly to discuss small business issues as well as new policies concerning small business that are effective throughout the state of Florida.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership is created using SBA local partnerships and recommendations from all areas of Northern Florida. The membership is very diverse in terms of the professions of the members.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Estimated Number of Meetings per Year - 4 Estimated Total Meetings - The meetings are held quarterly.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

This committee is essential, because it provides an opportunity to promote SBA programs and services effectively throughout the North Florida District. The Council also serves as a voice of small business to report to the SBA the needs and wants of the small business community. We rely heavily on the opinions of the Advisory Council.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings are usually open and published in the Federal Register.

21. Remarks

The council was deemed no longer essential to agency business and was shut down as a result. The agency CMO reports that Performance Measure data did not change from FY 11 for FY 12.. (KF/02-06-13)

Narrative Description

The North Florida District Advisory Council Acts as the eyes and ears of the SBA North Florida District Office. The council is kept informed of all matters, from press releases to local events happening in their areas and national events. The council meets quarterly to discuss recommendations and to hear feedback from the council as to what recommendations and needs their communities and professions may have and how the SBA can assist. The council is very aware of the agency's mission and strategic plan and often speaks on behalf of the SBA. The Council is critical for the SBA North Florida District Office to hear the true needs of the small business communities across the district as well as to share the SBA's mission and resources to North Florida Communities.
